REIKI MASTER: As a Reiki Master I know how important energy is. As a human being I know how difficult it can be, but how terribly important it is, to keep your body's energy balanced and healthy. At 'Reiki Bliss Reflexology' we help ease your pain, rejuvenate your energy systems, center yourself in your best self, release unwanted low vibrational energies, exit the "fight or flight" adrenaline loop you might not even realize you are in, and bring your mind, your body and your spirit into alignment and balance. You will feel wonderful! Reflexology is an ancient health support practice using point-pressure along Qi energy meridians on the feet and hands, head and face. It is rather like a mini acupuncture session without needles.
